

CFUW Nepean Scholarship Trust

Spring Luncheon

Funding scholarships for the Algonquin College Nursing Program

featuring

Noreen Young,

Recipient of the Order of Canada

Artistic Director & Founder, Puppets Up! International Puppet Festival

Noreen has held roles as designer, writer, and was the creator of “Under the Umbrella Tree” – a popular CBC television children’s series that ran from 1987 – 1997 on the CBC network and subsequently on The Disney Channel. The series was translated into French for the Canal Famille in Quebec.

Noreen was also the puppeteer for “Dodi”, a main character on CBC’s “Sesame Park”, the Canadian version of Sesame Street. She is known for her caricature puppets of famous people such as former Governor General Adrienne Clarkson, CBC broadcaster Peter Mansbridge and hockey commentator Don Cherry plus prominent personalities from her hometown of Almonte. Her caricature puppets of Canadian Prime Ministers now reside in the collection of the Canadian Museum of History.

Cherry plus prominent personalities from her hometown of Almonte. Her caricature puppets of Canadian Prime Ministers now reside in the collection of the Canadian Museum of History.

Tuesday, April 4th, 2017, 12 noon

Bells Corners United Church

3955 Old Richmond Rd., Nepean

$ 20.00 per person.

Please reserve by March 29th with:

Sharon Carew at 613-257-1747 sharonacarew@yahoo.com or

Kadri Campbell at 613-820-5536 Kadri.Campbell@opera.ncf.ca

We hope you will join us!
Family and Friends are most welcome!

The Canadian Federation of University Women Nepean Scholarship Trust is a Registered Charity. All proceeds from the lunch go into the Trust Fund. Donations in excess of the $ 20.00 lunch cost will be issued official CRA Tax receipts.